Greetings All!

Handbells etc. is excited to be celebrating their 15th Anniversary! Can you believe how fast times change? It was only yesterday that we were printing newsletters, stamping and addressing envelopes to announce our first anniversary sale.

Wendy Hoskin has worked hard over the past few years to fill your music orders. She has now retired and is enjoying a life of leisure. She plans to continue to ring with JUBILOSO! as well as ring or direct wherever she is needed. Her dedication to Handbells etc as well as in the Alberta Guild of English Handbells Ringers has been greatly appreciated.

Susan has retired from teaching so is able to spend more time on Handbells etc. She will now be the one at the other end of the phone when you call! She continues to ring with JUBILOSO! and she is very excited to be directing the Concordia Ringers at Concordia University in Edmonton.

Camille is not quite retired yet (although it might be kind of fun)! This past summer was particularly busy as her son and daughter-in-law had a new baby boy Landyn and her daughter got married! She loves ringing with JUBILOSO as well as directing Resounding Joy at First United Church at Fort Saskatchewan.

Susan Galloway and Camille Ream

Handbells etc is excited to announce a new and improved website! We are hoping that it will be easier to navigate and have more information on it than previously. It is indeed a "work in progress" so please check in regularly for updates. Special thanks to Chris Ream for all his hard work. Check it out at www.handbellsetc.ab.ca.
