

Greetings!

Tis the Season...by now, I expect all of your bell choirs are rehearsing Christmas music so it can be ready for December. Here, in Alberta, we have snow already so we are definitely getting into the Christmas spirit! Handbells etc thought we would help you even more this season and provide you with a chance to do some Christmas shopping!

In this newsletter, Handbells etc features a “Pre-Christmas Sale” with lots of handbell gift items.

In addition to our regular gift items, we have started to sew and quilt. Lately, on every handbell trip or other vacation, we go shopping at quilt stores looking for music fabric. We have had so much fun sewing table runners and pillow cases for you. Definitely a bonus to find fabric with handbells on it!

Call or text us at 780-437-9096 or email us at susan@handbellsetc.ab.ca to place your order and have it arrive in time for Christmas!

This table runner has classical music on it - we are not sure what it is but why don’t you ring it on your handbells and let us know! The grey and maroon colours with the dark border makes it look great on any table.

This runner is a bit more subdued and could work on anyone's table. The inner panel is green with black notes and symbols that are bordered with white. The green "grunge" border matches the inner panel perfectly.

There are two available.
